3. PhD in Aquatic Resources and Integrative Biology, Department of Biology, Texas State University (through courtesy appointment in Department of Biology)

Dissertation Committee Chair

2016: Shobhit Sharma, Influence of brain-derived neurotrophic factor and family history of alcohol dependence on alcohol consumption characteristics of heavy social drinkers

4. MSc Program, Department of Psychiatry, McGill University

External Examiner for Thesis

2015: Kaitlyn Enright, A novel neurophysiological marker for high-risk behavior: does the N400 event-related brain potential demarcate behavioral disinhibition towards dangerous social roles in DWI offenders?

D. Courses Prepared and Curriculum Development:

Undergraduate Courses

2020: Introduction to Psychology (adapted original class for use as a correspondence course for the Office of Distance and Extended Learning at TX State)

2019: Psychopharmacology (adapted original course for online teaching)

2018: Introduction to Psychology (modified the course to include an experiential learning component as part of a two-semester Faculty Makers workshop)

2017: Introduction to Psychology (completed a summer Multicultural Course Transformation Institute, transformed the course, and earned a “multicultural perspectives” designation)

2014: Psychology in Film (developed new course for Honors Program)

2011: Brain and Behavior (adapted original course for online teaching)

2008: Adolescent Psychology (Canterbury UK, Study Abroad Program; modified original course to enhance cross-cultural focus)

Graduate Courses

2008: Psychopharmacology (developed new course for Health Psychology Master’s program)
